Where Young Athletes Learn to Grow, Serve, and Belong Together

Elizabeth City Crusaders · Elizabeth City, NC

Elizabeth City Crusaders gather young athletes and their families into a Christ-centered sports community where skill, character, and faith grow side by side. It is a place where kids learn to compete with honor and care for the people around them. Picture a Saturday morning in Elizabeth City, with cleats on the grass and parents lining the sideline with coffee in hand. For the young athletes on the field, it is more than a game. It is a chance to learn…

Bringing Hope Home When Storms Pass Through

PCA MNA Disaster Response · Lawrenceville, GA

Mission to North America's disaster response ministry walks alongside churches and neighbors in the aftermath of hardship, helping communities begin to rebuild with care and dignity. Its work reflects a commitment to restoring what has been broken. When a disaster strikes a neighborhood, the first days can feel overwhelming. Familiar streets look unfamiliar, and families are left wondering where to begin. In moments like these, the presence of people who…

Prayer That Meets People Where They Live

Encounter Missions · Lawrence, KS

Encounter Missions sends trained teams to parishes, schools, and neighborhoods in Lawrence's partner countries to share healing prayer and strengthen local Catholic communities. Their work turns a single visit into ministry that continues long after the team goes home. Imagine a quiet afternoon in a village church, the pews half full, when a small team walks in carrying nothing but their faith and a willingness to listen. They pull up a chair, ask what is…

Hands Joined Across Miles, Hope Carried Home

Tying Vines, Inc · York Springs, PA

Tying Vines links local leaders, churches, and everyday neighbors with people who need help most, offering practical support and hope wherever it is needed. Their work reaches vulnerable communities near and far. Picture a neighborhood where a local church is the first place people turn when life falls apart. In communities like this, Tying Vines works alongside believers who already know the people they serve, helping those leaders grow stronger so their…

A Church Family Growing Together in Deltona

CIF Deltona · Deltona, FL

Centro Internacional de la Familia in Deltona opens its doors to families of every age, offering a place to worship, learn, and grow in faith side by side. Their work reaches from children and teens to young adults, building people up in their community. Imagine a Wednesday evening in Deltona, when the parking lot starts filling and the sound of families greeting one another spills out the doors. Parents arrive with children in tow, teenagers find their…

A Family Table of Faith in Deltona

CIF Deltona · Deltona, FL

CIF Deltona is a church in Deltona, Florida, where Spanish-speaking families gather to grow in faith, find support, and build lives together. Its doors open for kids, youth, young adults, and whole households. On Wednesday evenings and Sunday mornings, the doors of CIF Deltona open on Elkcam Boulevard, and families make their way in, some after a long week of work and some carrying questions they have not yet found words for. The rooms fill with the sound…

A Safe Place to Begin Again in Georgetown

Elizabeth's Village · Georgetown, KY

Elizabeth's Village stands with women and children in Georgetown, KY, offering a confidential refuge for those escaping domestic violence. Here, survivors can find room to breathe and begin rebuilding their lives. Imagine arriving somewhere after a frightening chapter, unsure what the next day will bring, and finding a door that opens toward safety instead of fear. For women and children in Georgetown who are escaping domestic violence, Elizabeth's…

Where curiosity takes root and families grow together

Roots & Wings Indy · Indianapolis, IN

Roots & Wings Indy is a parent-led homeschool co-op in Indianapolis where families gather each week to learn, create, and build friendships that last. It gives children a welcoming place to put down roots and discover their wings. Picture a Wednesday morning in Indianapolis when the parking area starts to fill and kids spill out of cars with backpacks and sketchbooks. Parents greet one another by name, and before long the day is humming with classes…

Growing Together: A Story of Possibility in LUR Growth's Community

LUR Growth

LUR Growth works alongside neighbors to nurture local opportunity, helping people and families plant roots that flourish over time. This example story shows how steady, personal support can turn small beginnings into lasting change. Every community has people with big hopes and few places to start. In this example story, imagine a neighbor who walks into LUR Growth's office with a notebook full of questions and a quiet worry about what comes next. The…

Camp Out: Where Every Night Under the Stars Means Something

Camp Out

Camp Out gives people a chance to step away from everyday pressures and reconnect with nature, friends, and themselves. This example story imagines the quiet, lasting difference a night outdoors can make in a community. Picture a late afternoon when the first tents go up and the smell of woodsmoke begins to drift across the grounds. For many of the people who gather with Camp Out, this is the moment the week's noise starts to fade. Phones get tucked away,…

A Week Under the Florida Sky at Babcock Camp

Babcock Camp · Punta Gorda, FL

In Punta Gorda, Babcock Camp gives young people a place to explore nature, build friendships, and discover what they are capable of. This example story shows how a single camp week can change a child's outlook. Imagine a child arriving at Babcock Camp on a warm Florida morning, backpack in hand and a little nervous about meeting new faces. By the end of the first afternoon, that same child is wading along a shoreline, pointing out birds and laughing with…

Hot Meals Delivered to Homebound Neighbors Every Weekday

Meals on Wheels Lewes-Rehoboth · Lewes, DE

In Lewes and Rehoboth, a daily knock at the door brings a nourishing meal and a friendly face to homebound older and disabled neighbors. It is a simple act that helps people stay safely in the homes they love. Picture a quiet weekday morning on one of our Lewes-area routes. A volunteer loads insulated containers into the car, checks the day's list, and heads out along familiar roads toward a house where someone has been waiting. For many homebound…
